

BPL is athreat to numerous licensed services and will cause consternation to many users whose service will be "interfered with" by these licensed users legitimate operation.

Futhermore, it is a redundant technology that brings little to a market in which DSL, cable amd satellite broadband are already established.

I implore the commission to abandon this flawed and troublesome technology.

Thank you,

Lonnie Juli